

THE
WORLD WAR VETERANS
OF STOUGHTON

A MEMORIAL TO THOSE WHO MADE
THE SUPREME SACRIFICE
AND A SOUVENIR
OF THE
WELCOME HOME RECEPTION
AND CELEBRATION

GIVEN BY THE
TOWN OF STOUGHTON, MASSACHUSETTS
TO HER RETURNING SONS
SEPTEMBER 1, 1919

FOREWORD

STOUGHTON is proud that it has been her privilege to contribute the services of so many of her sons to the cause of Liberty and Righteousness. She is devoutly thankful to the God of Battles that so many have been permitted to return in safety to their homes after nobly discharging their duty. Her sadness at the loss of those who made the Supreme Sacrifice is tempered only by the thought that their lives were given to a cause for which the noblest deemed it sweet to die.

To the memory of these brave souls, and to all those who stood ready, should the trumpet call, this book is dedicated.

What matters Death, if Freedom be not dead?
No flags are fair, if Freedom's flag be furled.
Who fights for Freedom, goes with joyful tread
To meet the fires of Hell against him hurled,
And has for Captain, Him whose thorn-wreathed head
Smiles from the Cross upon a conquered world.

—Joyce Kilmer.

THE RED CROSS

TO relieve human suffering is the high calling and noble work of the Red Cross. Among all truly civilized nations its flag is respected as the banner of mercy, love and service. The Red Cross asks nothing for itself, it only seeks to serve and its reward is the joy of helping others through endless generosity and unselfish devotion.

The wealth of our nation, freely given by individual citizens, enabled the American Red Cross to minister to the material needs of the American soldier, sailor and marine wherever he carried the Stars and Stripes. The Red Cross nurse, sharing the danger and hardship of foreign service, will always have the loving appreciation of the Army and Navy and the American people.

In support of the Red Cross the 2160 members of the organization in Stoughton contributed generously of money and materials, the amount given during the war reaching a total of $8,397.15. Of knitted goods and hospital supplies they furnished 744 hospital garments, thousands of surgical dressings, 683 refugee garments and 1142 knitted articles, besides supplying 210 men with comfort kit and knitted outfits. The women of Stoughton found in the work of the Red Cross, a practical way of expressing their patriotism and their loyalty toward the soldiers and sailors of our home town.

Every knitted article was made to give genuine service and comfort. Each article also carried with it the prayers of the workers at home, for victory with honor, and these prayers have been answered.
